

FREE HAZARDOUS WASTE TRAINING

Attend this training session at no cost!

The annual CUPA conference will feature a no-cost training session for businesses that generate hazardous waste. The training will cover the basics of identifying what is a hazardous waste, proper labeling and accumulation requirements, and record keeping requirements. An overview of RCRA waste vs. non-RCRA waste and generator status (LQG, SQG or CESQG) will be covered. Participants will receive a comprehensive course manual and a certificate of completion.

Training will be presented by Steve Reichow with NES, Inc.
